February 9, 2022 (Los Angeles, CA) -Omar Apollo officially announces his highly anticipated debut album IVORY, due April 8th via Warner Records. The announcement arrives alongside the imminent release of his new single and its accompanying STILLZ-directed visual, "Invincible" featuring Daniel Caesar. The cinematic video shows the artists performing the track amidst intimate scenes that portray the struggle of distance and absence in love through a masked couple designed by Costa Rican Visual Artist Andrés Gudiño.

In support of the forthcoming project, Omar will also head out on his 29-date Desvelado tour this spring seeing multiple new and rescheduled stops along the route, including two performances at Coachella and shows in Eugene, Chicago, Atlanta, Austin, Dallas, New Orleans, and Orlando. The Desvelado tour features support from Deb Never and begins on April 5th in Portland and wraps up in London on June 16th. The tour will be an exciting return to the stage for the artist whom GQ called "one of the most electric live performers of his generation." Tickets go on sale this Friday, January 21st at 10 a.m. local time HERE.

"Invincible" closely follows Omar's collaborative track with Kali Uchis "Bad Life," which arrived with a video directed by Alfred Marroquín and Omar himself, and the single "Go Away," both released last year.

Listen to and watch "Invincible" featuring Daniel Caesar above, see full album details and tour routing below, and stay tuned for more from Omar coming soon.

About Omar Apollo:

Omar Apollo is one of music's most exciting shape-shifters. In just a few years time, the Indiana-raised Mexican-American singer-songwriter went from teenage strummer to one of the most hotly-tipped R&B artists of his generation. Apollo' has had a transformative but linear journey, from listening to Brandy and Stevie Wonder as a kid, to plucking away at a guitar at as a pre-teen, to self-releasing a pair of EPs as a young man—2018's Stereo and 2019's Friends—that established his signature "bedroom soul" and earned him love from fans and press (Pitchfork, Rolling Stone, The FADER, et al.). As unique as his sound is, Apollo has garnered as much attention for his lyrics—themes of romantic yearning and self-improvement swirled up with expressions of cultural heritage and identity. In 2020, he released his home-recorded project Apolonio which featured collaborations with Bootsy Collins, DJ Dahi, Albert Hammond, Jr., and more. To celebrate Apolonio's release, Apollo performed a livestream concert from Paisley Park, the legendary residence of one of his heroes, Prince. 2021 saw the release of two singles, "Go Away," which Apollo performed on The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon and "Bad Life" featuring Kali Uchis. Apollo closed out the year on a high note receiving his first Latin GRAMMY nomination for his collaboration "Te Olvidaste" with C Tangana. Apollo's long-awaited debut album IVORY brings him to another level in his career. Crossing genre lines as well as language barriers, the full-length showcases even greater musical diversity from the already boundless creator. Upon the release of his new single "Invincible" featuring Daniel Caesar, Apollo announced that IVORY will arrive on April 8th, 2022. Despite being at this pivotal moment in his career, Omar feels like he's just getting started. The artist who once called himself "just a kid from Indiana" is breaking new ground, abandoning all comfort zones, and never looking back.

About Daniel Caesar:

Multiplatinum GRAMMY Award-winning singer, songwriter, multi-instrumentalist and producer Daniel Caesar effortlessly floats across the gamut of contemporary R&B— contemplative soul and evocative rock to intergalactic alternative and understated pop— with integrity at his core. He is one of the most critically and commercially successful artists today—he’s one the Top 10 most-streamed Canadian artists of all time on Spotify with 23.7 million monthly listeners on the platform and 1.33 million subscribers on YouTube. His 2017 debut album, Freudian, was a R&B breakthrough, bolstered by the 5x- platinum “Best Part” [feat. H.E.R.] and 3x-platinum “Get You” [feat. Kali Uchis]. Daniel received a GRAMMY Award for “Best R&B Performance” for the former and the b-side “Blessed” was featured on President Barack Obama’s annual favorites playlist. 2019’s follow up, CASE STUDY 01 [featuring John Mayer, Brandy, and Pharrell Williams], debuted at number 17 on the Billboard Top 200. His first number one hit on the Billboard 100 came two years later with Justin Bieber’s “Peaches” [featuring Giveon], amassing over two billion streams and receiving four GRAMMY nominations. Now, he’s ready to elevate his artistry in 2022 and beyond.
