November 28, 2019 (Los Angeles, CA) - Baltimore's fastest rising star Shordie Shordie shares a three-track bundle entitled "Me & Mine Pt. 1" just in time for Thanksgiving, which includes new songs "Loved Ones," "4th of July" and "Bonnie & Clyde." He also unveils a compelling visual for "Bonnie &

Clyde” in conjunction with the new music for fans to feast their eyes on during the holiday. The Michael Smigiel-directed video shows a fearless Shordie Shordie and his female accomplice running amok until he gets caught and relies on her as the story unfolds. Meanwhile, "Loved Ones" offers an introspectively bold display of Shordie Shordie's limitless rhymes as "4th of July" showcases his melodic delivery with intricate wordplay.

The new tracks come on the heels of his previous song release "Both Sides" featuring Shoreline Mafia, which has been streamed over 11 million times across platforms and features a video directed by Cole Bennett.

ABOUT SHORDIE SHORDIE:

Hailing from the Northeast side of the city, Shordie Shordie, born RaQuan Hudson, knows he's different from his peers; "on another planet," he said assuredly in one of his first interviews with No Jumper. It's no question Shordie Shordie took 2019 by storm from racking up over 233 million streams across platforms, playing his first headlining shows on the Captain Hook Tour, to performing at the BET Experience and receiving co-signs by some of the biggest in the game, including Megan Thee Stallion, Juice WRLD, Wiz Khalifa and more. Shordie Shordie has also been covered by the likes of The FADER ("GEN F"), XXL, Complex, Genius and Flaunt Magazine. His song "Bitchuary (Betchua)," from his debut mixtape Captain Hook has earned an RIAA gold certification and has amassed over 150 million cumulative streams worldwide. Shordie has credited patience for allowing him to find success in his own lane and that confidence and endurance is paying off in a big way.
