JOJI RETURNS AFTER TWO YEARS WITH NEW SINGLE 'GLIMPSE OF US'

Joji finally returns!

The Japan-born singer and songwriter is returning with his first single in over two years with "Glimpse Of Us" on June 9 via New York-based label 88rising. The track explores the limits of a past relationship, anchored by one of the most commanding choruses Joji has ever written and sung.

The artist shared his plans for releasing upcoming music with an Instagram story last June 7, and this release follows his highly successful 18-track sophomore album NECTAR from 2020. Last April, he made his Coachella debut at 88rising's "Head In The Clouds Forever" showcase alongside fellow 88rising artists Rich Brian and NIKI, and artists like GOT7 member Jackson Wang, Thai hip hop superstar MILLI, Japanese-American singer Hikaru Utada, South Korean singer BIBI, and Indonesian rapper-producer Warren Hue.

Joji is most known for his hits like "Slow Dancing In The Dark," "Yeah Right," and "Sanctuary" since first making his musical debut in 2017.
