It's hard keeping up with all the new music released each week. Just when you've fallen in love with a certain song, album, or artist, something else drops. It's a fun time to be a music fan, sure, but also tricky.

Rest easy though, as BET has you covered with our weekly New Music Mondays post, featuring some of the latest artists, sounds, and trends in hip-hop, r&b, Afrobeat, house and more. We present an eclectic mix of established

You'll find a familiar (and not-so-familiar) array of artists and emerging music. So, without further ado, here are ten new records that you should kick off your week with — led by Popcaan and Drake, Quavo and French Montana.

Popcaan is back in the mix with his new single "We Can Done" and tapped previous collaborator Drake to make an appearance on the song. The track has Drizzy reaching back into his dancehall bag with the video for it featuring a party vibe in Turks and Caicos. The single is from the Jamaican vocalist's upcoming album, Great Is He.

It's been a very difficult past few months for Quavo as his nephew and fellow Migos member Takeoff was tragically killed in early November. Now, the Atlanta rapper is reflecting about life without his Phew with "WITHOUT YOU" – a new song that is a heartfelt remembrance of Takeoff's life. The visual for it features Quavo sitting sadly, smoking what appears to be a blunt, and rocking gently in a chair as the song plays.

On Friday (January 6), French Montana released the latest installment of his Coke Boys project series. One of the standouts on the tape is "Chit Chat," a smooth, bass-heavy banger featuring Smooky MarGielaa, and A$AP Rocky. The entire tape is a DJ Drama-hosted Gangsta Grillz effort and is available now.

Additionally, Queen Naija, NBA YoungBoy and Ice Spice released new songs and videos. See our list below.
