Fresco Trey feat. Brezay, "Pull Up"

There's something in the water in Memphis, and newcomers Fresco Trey and Brezay are adding to the city's rich swagger with their new single "Pull Up." Produced by Jeff Williams, the song is built on heavy bass with choir undertones as the two bounce off each other's boastful bars with adrenaline-powered flows. "My inspiration for 'Pull Up' really came from the vibe of Memphis," Trey explains in a press release. "We invited some local artists to come to the studio and vibe out. When I heard the beat, I jumped in the booth. Then my homegirl Brezay hopped on and killed it!"
