April 5, 2024 (Los Angeles, CA) – Today, global pop sensation Benson Boone releases his hotly anticipated debut album Fireworks & Rollerblades. Listen HERE via Night Street Records/Warner Records. The ambitious project includes the chart-topping Platinum hit "Beautiful Things," which has spent 5 weeks atop the Billboard Global 200 chart and reached #2 on the Billboard Hot 100.

Fireworks & Rollerblades kicks off with a soaring intro, followed by "Be Someone," a track bristling with intrigue and longing. Also included is his epic and currently viral new single "Slow It Down," the fan-favorite angsty anthem "Cry," and "Friend," a gentle ode to those who've been by his side on his stunning journey to worldwide fame. Last Friday, he officially leaked his entire new album a week early via TikTok to give his 6.6M fans on the platform a preview. Now, he's amassed over 21M views and counting across the videos soundtracked by his new music, with "Cry" becoming an instant favorite leading up to release day.

This week, Boone kicked off his sold-out Fireworks & Rollerblades world tour in Chicago. He will play Brooklyn Paramount Theatre in New York next week, after appearing on NBC's TODAY and The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon on April 9. See all tour dates below.

The album continues a trend of big moments for Boone. Earlier this year, iHeartRadio named him an On The Verge Artist, and last year, he was named an Amazon Music Breakthrough Artist and MTV's Global PUSH Artist for October. Meanwhile, his PULSE EP generated tens of millions of streams for tracks like "What Was," "Little Runaway," and "Sugar Sweet." He also headlined a sold-out tour across North America and Europe, and released the moving single "To Love Someone."
